Chance to Win the Second.

The card at Guttenburg to-day shows a little improvement over that of the past few days. The quality is still tacking. One cannot enthuse much over a maiden race unless one should back the winner at 50 to 1. Under such circumstances enthusiasm would be pardonable.

Where game, sound horses, well matched, are entered in the same race then one feels interested as to the result.

The card to-day may furnish fair racing, and will attract the usual crowd of regulars. Two races for two-year-olds are down for decision, and they may result in close finance between the closing event may also result in a good contest.

Enormous Quantities of Provisions.

The Department of Charities and Correction to-day advertised for more supplies for the institutions under its care, to be delivered on the same system as that on which meat is supplied. This system has recently been condemned by the Commissioners of Accounts, who charged that the city was cheated out of 20,000 pounds of meat.

The Commissioners advertise for millions of pounds of various articles, among them 133,000 pounds of coffee.

360,000 pounds of soap, 500,000 pounds of sugar, 55,000 pounds of free, and other articles of food in proportion.

These goods are to 'be delivered in quantities required, and in that way, by giving short weight, it is alleged that fraud is committed.

The Commissioners of Charities and Correction have not yet made the explanation they were asked to make by Mayor Gilroy in answer to the findings of the Commissioners of Accounts.
